

National Law University Delhi

Centre for innovation, intellectual property and competition

Certificate course

IP & Fashion Law

Law at the intersection of creativity, IP, commerce and counterfeiting.

5
Modules

15
Hours

1
Credit

What you will study

- 1 Introduction to the fashion business & its key legal issues
- 2 Fashion brand strategy and monetization law
- 3 Protecting the fashion article and trends against counterfeiting
- 4 Fashion industry and growing digital technology
- 5 Fashion enforcement, disputes, and crisis management

Who should attend

- Law Students with interest in IP
- Researchers and early academicians with foundational knowledge of IP law
- Young lawyers and in-house counsel advising fashion, retail, or luxury brands
- IP professionals seeking specialization in fashion and design law
- Brand managers, compliance officers, and legal-adjacent industry professionals

Patron and Coordinators

Patron

Prof. Dr. G. S. Bajpai
Vice-chancellor, NLU Delhi

Course coordinators

Ms. Nishtha Sharma
Research and Programme Coordinator
Ms. Priyanka Sonowal
Research Assistant and Co-Coordinator

Course Fee

Law Students

Rs. 7,500

Researchers, Lawyers, IP Professionals,
Industry Professionals

Rs. 12,000

Mode and Deadline

Mode

Online

Last Date to Register

30 October

Classes start in November.
Certificate of completion with 1 credit. 70% attendance, assignment and final examination.

Scan to Register

Queries:
ciipc@nludelhi.ac.in